The Manoranjan Mahapatra Collection of Artistic Nudes & Old World Crowns Part 2

Mr. Manoranjan Mahapatra, an engineer and an MBA from FMS (Delhi) works as a part of the top management team in one of the large Indian conglomerate here in Mumbai. His first acquaintance with coin collecting started in High School while listening to a Children's Program on All India Radio expounding the virtue and joy of coins as a hobby. He started collecting Republic of India varieties from pocket change and also from local shops. But it was not until he started earning and came to Bombay (now Mumbai), when a chance encounter with a group of collectors in the Fort area whetted his interest in more serious Indian numismatics

Though principally a collector of Indian coins and medals to the Indian Army, his interest in World Crowns started when he saw a large collection of Crowns with a Parsi friend.

An eclectic collector of Indian coins and medals, this collection like Manoranjan's other numismatic passions is a true labour of love. The collection presented here is principally a Type collection representing almost all countries that issued Crown-size coins before 1947; the objective being to collect at least one crown-size coin dated pre-1947 from each country. The collection is quite broad from an Indian perspective since these pieces scarcely pass through this country any more. The collection contains many key and historical Crowns such as the Comoros 5 Francs piece, the Zanzibari Ryal, the beautiful Swiss shooting Thaler of the last shooting festival at Berne in 1885, etc. The rare pieces are of finest quality. It won't be an exaggeration to say that it will be a longtime before such a broad and significant Crown collection can be assembled in India.

The other part of this collection, Artistic Nudes, is also quite fascinating. A numismatic rendition of old masters by a skillful engraver is a thing of beauty to behold and an object of art itself. This portion is dominated by Proofs. In the world of coins collecting, the artistic nudes are few and far between. And this is an almost complete run of this exciting theme comprising many countries, with the exception of the ancient Greek coins series that contains innumerable nudes. It will be a long time before such a collection is formed again.

The Mahapatra collection provides serious collectors of World Crowns as well as world coins an exceptional opportunity to obtain many coins that scarcely pass through the Indian Market anymore.

Happy Collecting,

Dr. Dilip Rajgor
Chairman

Rev: Dali's famous painting "Leda Atomica" depicting Nude Leda seated on a stool with swan and legend. Proof, In box and Certificate of Authenticity. Rare. Less than 7000 pieces minted.
Leda Atomica is a painting by Salvador Dalí, made in 1949. The picture depicts Leda, the mythological queen of Sparta, with the swan. Leda is a frontal portrait of Dalí's wife, Gala, who is seated on a pedestal with a swan suspended behind. And to her left, different objects such as a book, a set square, two stepping stools and an egg float around the main figure. In the background on both sides, the rocks of Cap Norfeu (on the Costa Brava in Catalonia, between Roses and Cadaqués) define the location of the image. Leda Atomica is organized according to a rigid mathematical framework, following the "divine proportion". Leda and the swan are set in a pentagon inside which has been inserted a five, point star of which Dalí made several sketches. The five points of the star symbolize the seeds of perfection: love, order, light (truth) willpower and word (action). The mythological background of Leda and the Swan is like this: Leda was admired by Zeus, who raped her in the guise of a swan on her wedding night when she slept with her husband Tyndareus. This double consummation of her marriage resulted in two eggs, each of them hatching twins: from the first egg Castor and Pollux, and from the second Clytemnestra and Helen. This collection contains several coins, medals and tokens on this theme.
