Mewad State

194 Anvil Die of Obverse of Nazarana Double Rupee, Bronze, Weight 310 g, 36 mm face of the Die, Height 40 mm, Anvil Die of Obverse of Nazarana 2 (Double) Rupees, Udaipur Mint, issued between AD 1780-1850; the Obverse Die reads in Persian in reverse, Sikka Mubarak / Badshah Ghazi / Shah Alamgir; the mint marks include the traditional leaf symbol in the first line, Sun rays in the second line and the Star mark of Udaipur mint next to the sun symbol; an upside down Flag symbol in the third line if the obverse (similar to normal Rupee coins, KM# C32).

The Nazarana Die of the multiple Rupees, 2 Rupees in this case has a complete die impression but without any traces of the outer circle and dotted border, indicating thereby that these features were not incorporated in these coins. The denomination of the resultant coins can be verified by the size of the dies, the higher the denomination, the broader the die will be. Extremely Fine+, Great Rarity.

From 1791 to 1814, Mewad was under the Governorship of Sindhias, and acted more like a Maratha Province under the Subhedars like Ambaji Angre, Lakwa Dada and Bapu Sindhia. During this time enormous tributes were paid to the Marathas. It is quite likely that the present die was employed to mint Nazarana Double Rupee coins to pay as tributes to the Marathas.

No Nazarana coins in circular shape of Rupee, its fractions and Multiples of Rupees are ever reported till now. In this light the present evidence of a Nazarana Double Rupee of the State throws a significant light on the practice of issuing Nazarana coins and Nazarana coins of Multiple Rupees, quite like the Partapgarh State (see 5 dies of the State hereunder).

Estimate: ₹ 12,000-15,000

Narwar State

Orchha State

- 197 Maharaja Hate Singh (AD 1765-1768), Orchhanagar mint, Silver, 11.16 g, Rupee, in the name of Shah Alam II, with the mint name Roshan Akhtar Orchhanagar mint, RY 6, the couplet on the obverse reads in Persian, Sikka zad bar haft kishwar; sayah faz-ilah; hami-din Muhammad Shah alam badshah (= coin struck in the seven climes in the shadow of Divine favour, the defender of the Faith of Muhammad, Emperor Shah Alam). Mint symbols of a Pataka (Royal banner) above in of din in the 2nd line of the legend; a Gada (mace) above kishwar in the 3rd line of the inscription; the standard Julus formula on the reverse reads sanah julus maimanat manus 6 zarb Roshan (Akhtar) Orchhanagar (= struck at the city of Rosha Akhtar Orchha, in the Regnal Year 6 associated with Prosperity). Extremely Fine+, Extremely Rare.

Bhandare, Deyell and Lingen assign this extremely rare coin to Hate Singh who ruled only for 4 years, and issued this coin along with Zodiac Rupees as a part of his accessional ceremonies in AD 1765. The learned authors further think that these coins were minted at Jhansie in Uttar Pradesh, and might have been a part of the confirmations of the Marathas to the accession of Maharaja Hate Singh on the throne of Orchha State. In a way, this Rupee should be considered as a joint issue of the Marathas with the Orchha State (for complete discussion on the coin along with Zodiac Rupees, refer the research article of the three scholars in the JONS# 213, 2012).

Estimate: ₹ 75,000-90,000

Partapgarh State

- 198 Maharawal Sawant Singh (AD 1775-1844; AH 1189-1260), Bronze, Weight 450 g, 40 mm face of the Die, Height 40 mm, Anvil Die of Obverse of Nazarana 2½ Rupees, Type 4, issued during AD 1823-1858, the Obverse die reads in Persian in reverse, Shah Alam / Badshah Ghazi / Sikka Mubarak, frozen year AH 1236 (= AD 1821), (KM# 26). The Nazarana Die of the multiple Rupees, 2½ Rupees in this case has a complete die impression with the outer circle and dotted border also. The denomination of the resultant coins can be verified by the size of the dies, the higher the denomination, the broader the die will be. Extremely Fine+, Great Rarity.

In 1821 (AH 1236), under the pressure of the British authorities, Sawant Singh planned to reform the coinage of the State. W.W. Webb reports that the Currency Reform was promised in 1821, however, the new coins were not introduced before 1823 or even 1825. The present coin die represents the earliest stage of this Coinage Reform by Sawant Singh, who also issued Nazarana Rupee, Nazarana 2½ Rupee and Nazarana 5 Rupee coins. These Nazarana coins are not reported in any private collections but are known from such dies only. However, by looking at the wear and tear of the dies, it appears that these dies were indeed employed for the production of these Nazarana Multiple Rupees, but we have to still wait for those coins to appear for study. See the following lots for more varieties and denominations.

The Nazarana Die of the multiple Rupees, 2½ Rupees in this case has a complete die impression with the outer circle and dotted border also. The denomination of the resultant coins can be verified by the size of the dies, the higher the denomination, the broader the die will be. Extremely Fine+, Great Rarity.

After the Great Revolt of 1858, the State of Partapgarh changed its coinage from the Mughal style to the British style with the name as Shah-i-Landan (the King of London). Silver coins of this type were minted from AD 1859 to about 1900. However, no Nazarana Multiple coins are reported till now, but the presence of such worn out dies do indicate that such coins were indeed minted although for a limited circulation only.

Estimate: ₹ 12,000-15,000

The Nazarana Die of the multiple Rupees, 5 Rupees in this case has a complete die impression with the outer circle and dotted border also. The denomination of the resultant coins can be verified by the size of the dies, the higher the denomination, the broader the die will be. Extremely Fine+, Great Rarity.
